Greetings to the Graduates

As we go through life, our progress is marked by special moments when we turn corners, and new horizons open out before us. This convocation of scholars celebrates the happy observance of such an important turning point in your lives. The ceremony is steeped in customs that have been passed down to us over the centuries. It is sedate, colorful, traditional, and meaningful. We hope you will enjoy the experience, and will participate in the goodwill that permeates a day to be remembered.

By conferring its degrees, the University confirms that you have successfully fulfilled a rigorous course of study and have earned the right to enter into the collegiality of educated women and men. Be proud of what you have done, and be grateful for what the University has done for you.

Understand that the University of Alberta is not just the campus which you know so well. It is everything that our graduates of yesterday, today, and tomorrow accomplish to make our world a better place to live in. Today you join a worldwide community of alumni, a hundred thousand strong, whose support and interest is vital to the enhancement of the quality and the value of the degrees which you receive today. Keep in touch, and never forget the University that nurtured the mind you use every day. You entered to grow in wisdom. You leave the better to serve your community and yourselves.

Welcome and Congratulations.

Sandy MacTaggart
Chancellor

Paul Davenport
President and Vice-Chancellor

Universities began as small collections of scholars who worked together to preserve and advance knowledge. Students came to study with them and, in due course, an administrative structure arose to provide system and recognition for those studies. This ancient structure is preserved at the University of Alberta, with the faculty and the students providing the core of the University's purpose: teaching and the advancement of knowledge. The faculty's task is facilitated by their colleagues in the academic staff, the Faculty Service Officers, the Administrative Professional Officers and the Librarians, and the University's dedicated support staff.

The faculty, numbering some 1,600, is responsible for creating programs of study, for teaching, and for evaluating the learning of the student body, both undergraduate and graduate. In addition, faculty members are responsible for the scholarly reputation of the University by preserving and sharing knowledge and by pursuing new ideas and knowledge through their research.

The faculty and staff congratulate you, the graduates, on the successful completion of your present studies which is recognized by the degrees to which you are admitted today. Your achievement deserves praise. We hope your present knowledge provides a sound base for an education which will continue throughout a rewarding life. We would remind you of the advice given to graduands by Honorary Degree Recipient Dr Tommy Banks: "Try to be a good person. You will be amazed how rewarding it is."

Congratulations from the Faculty and Staff!

University Mace and Ceremonial Chairs

The University of Alberta Mace was designed and crafted specifically for the University as a gift from Dr Francis Phillip Galbraith, Chancellor of the University of Alberta from 1964 - 1970. It was presented by his son, Michael Galbraith, on behalf of his father on May 26, 1970.

Among its elements are: the Star of Saint Thomas Aquinas, the Patron Saint of Scholars; the Wild Rose of Alberta; the Maple Leaf; and the separate charges which make up the University's Emblem. The University motto "Quaecumque Vera" ("Whatsoever Things Are True" Phil 4:8) encircles the staff. The Mace is made of sterling silver which was rhodium plated after the insertion of the various enamelled shields which make up its elements. A special electro-plate process was used to apply 24 carat gold to other parts of the Mace.

It was intended that the Mace should be modern in appearance but with medieval origins. The preponderance of visual weight at the top of the staff and the rather complex section through the metalwork at this point are reminiscent of the use of the mace as a weapon, defensive or aggressive. The Mace is carried before the Chancellor, or Vice-Chancellor, in procession and rests on its stand in full view of the assembly during Convocation. Centuries ago the Mace was a symbol of authority over life and death. Today it represents power – but the power of knowledge and the importance of the University in the community.

The Chancellor's Chair was presented to the University of Alberta as a gift from the 1922 graduating class. It is made of solid oak with a padded leather back and seat. Above the padded leather back is carved the University motto "Quaecumque Vera" together with the class year, 1922, and the University emblem.

In 1987, the family and friends of Dr Charles Malcolm Macleod, Chair of the Board of Governors from 1950 to 1966, presented a memorial gift to the University of an oak stand for the University of Alberta Mace and two additional chairs for use by the President and the Chair of the Board of Governors at Convocation.

Convocation History

In the eleventh century, a new vitality quickened all aspects of the civilization of Western Europe. The creative forces thus unleashed soon found expression in new institutions, and of these the university bids fair to be the most enduring. The modern university is the lineal descendant of the university of the Middle Ages. Its purposes and organization, even much of its ceremonial, are medieval in origin.

The medieval university was originally called a studium generale, that is, a place of learning to which teachers and students from anywhere resorted. The first studia were at Salerno, Bologna, and Paris. These came into existence spontaneously and developed through the twelfth century as the needs of the time and their inner necessities dictated. In the thirteenth century these spontaneous associations crystallized into guilds or corporations endowed by Church and State with specific privileges which guaranteed the internal autonomy necessary for the vocation of study. To these corporations was increasingly applied the word universitas denoting the entire group of those responsible for the transmission of higher learning and the pursuit of knowledge.

By the beginning of the fourteenth century, two forms of university organization had appeared. At Bologna, which was primarily a higher school of canon and civil law to which came men experienced in ecclesiastical and secular administration, the control of the studium generale passed to the students; hence Bologna was a universitas scholarum. On the other hand in Paris and Oxford, whose dominant faculty was the Faculty of Arts, the studium emerged under the direction of a guild of teachers, a universitas magistrorum.

Through its own officials, notably the chancellor (once symbol of external control and by now of internal autonomy), the guild of teachers developed its courses of instruction, administered its own affairs and admitted to its company only those who had met its intellectual standards. The University of Alberta stands in the tradition of Paris and Oxford.

Originally the goal of the medieval student was certification by the guild of teachers that he also was qualified to teach (the licentia docendi). With the passage of time the student's progress through the curriculum was marked by ceremonies which signified his successful attainment of a certain level (gradus or in modern language, degree) of competence. The Bachelor had completed his apprenticeship in the Faculty of Arts. The Master was now qualified to teach in that Faculty and was thus incorporated into the universitas magistrorum. The Doctor was one who, having obtained the mastership, had successfully completed the curriculum of one of the "higher" faculties (in the Middle Ages, law, medicine, and theology) and was now qualified to teach in those faculties. Inevitably the degrees of the universitas did more than admit their holders to the teaching profession. They served the wider social purpose of demonstrating their holders' fitness to serve the entire medieval community.

Today's ceremony stems from the medieval tradition. The procession of the guild of teachers, whose solemn assembly, or convocation, is the modern equivalent of the medieval magna congregatio of all faculties, is lead by the Chancellor and the Chief Marshal carrying the mace, the symbol of the University's corporate authority. The academic gowns, hoods, and caps, once the sober, disciplined dress of secular clergy and teachers, declare in their various designs and colors the academic qualifications of the Faculty. The citations and presentations by the Faculty to the Chancellor attest to him and to society the degree of proficiency attained by the students of the University. There follows a visible and public act whereby the universitas magistrorum, acting through its Chancellor, confers upon the students the appropriate degree. It is the act, not a certificate, which constitutes the validity of the degree bestowed. More, the formula, "I admit you" and the placing of the students' hands within the hands of the Chancellor and his associates, bind the students in the appropriate degree to the universitas magistrorum. The students thereafter bear for all time the mark of their association with this University. They have received what the University has been and presently is. Since they bear in themselves the promise of the future, they are what the University hopes to be. For all its solemnity, convocation is a joyous occasion.

The history of academic dress reaches far back into early days of the oldest universities. A statute of 1321 required that all "Doctors, Licentiates, and Bachelors" of the University Coimbra wear gowns. In England, in the second half of the 14th century, the statutes of certain colleges forbade "excess apparel" and prescribed the wearing of a long gown. It is still a controversial question as to whether academic dress finds its sources chiefly in ecclesiastical or in civilian dress. Gowns may have been counted necessary for warmth in the unheated buildings frequented by medieval scholars. Hoods seem to have served to cover the tonsured head until superseded for that purpose by the skull cap. This was itself displaced by a headdress more or less like one or another of those now recognized as "academic." [The mortar board, the hard, square cap commonly used as academic headdress today, evolved from the softer, more flexible "square cap" that was introduced in England in about 1490 and is named for the square board on a handle used by stone masons for holding the mixed mortar to be applied to walls.] Both Cambridge and Oxford have made academic dress a matter of university control to the extent of even its minor details and have repeatedly issued revised regulations. In Laudian days in Oxford it was prescribed that any tailor who departed from authorized design "even by a nail's breadth" in the making of any article of collegiate costume was to be punished by the vice-chancellor of the university.

Academic dress at the University of Alberta generally follows the prescription of Cambridge University in the design of the gown, and that of Oxford University in the design of the hood. The following page provides a detailed description of the academic dress at this institution.

In addition to the apparel worn by holders of degrees conferred by the University of Alberta, a collection of apparel specific to particular offices has also been developed. The President of the University wears a green gown faced with gold braid trim and lining and a green cap with a gold tassel. The Chancellor and Chancellors Emeriti wear gowns of teal blue with silver trim and black caps with silver tassels. The gowns of the senior officials bear an embroidered emblem of the University. University Governors and Senators wear stoles bearing the emblem of the University over their gowns: gold for Governors and green for Senators. The University Registrar wears a green gown with gold trim on the sleeves.

Graduates and staff of the University of Alberta who wish to purchase their own academic apparel are invited to contact: Harcourt's Limited, 26-28 Duncan Street, Toronto, ON, M5V 2B9. Order forms may be obtained by contacting the Convocation Officer in the Office of the Registrar.

Doctorate Degrees

Doctors' gowns (PhD, DMus, and EdD) conform to the Intercollegiate Code in design. They are made of black material and the velvet trim on the sleeves is Philosophy Blue for the PhD and DMus, and Education Light Blue for the EdD. Doctor's hoods conform to the Intercollegiate Code in shape, size, and color. They are made of black material to match the gown, and have a full lining of gold satin with a six-inch green satin chevron. The velvet trim distinguishes the two degrees and matches the velvet trim on the gown's sleeves. There is a narrow green piping where the gold lining joins the black material. Mortarboards are the standard black trencher shape with black tassels, which are worn forward and to the left.

Honorary Doctorates

Honorary Doctors of Laws, Letters, and Science wear a scarlet robe faced with white silk. Hoods are made in the Cambridge form of scarlet silk with a full lining of white silk. Caps are black velvet with a gold tassel.

Conferring of Degrees

The Presentation

The Acting Dean of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research asks the candidates for degrees to rise, and presents them with these words:

"Eminent Chancellor and President, on behalf of the Faculties, I present to you these scholars and ask that they be pledged and admitted to the degrees to which they are entitled."

The Pledge

The President then addresses the candidates in these words:

"Do you promise faithfully to observe and loyally to maintain the statutes, customs, privileges, and liberties of this, your University? Do you solemnly promise to conduct yourself in all things loyally and faithfully to the honor of your University, the encouragement of learning, and the good of your country?"

Each candidate replies:

"These things I pledge myself to do."

The Admission

The Chancellor then addresses the candidates in these words:

"By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Legislature of this Province, and with the consent of this University, I admit you to the degrees to which you are entitled, and invest you with all the powers, rights, and privileges pertaining to such degrees, and I charge you to use them for the glory of God and the honor of your country."

Honorary Degree Recipient

Yukio Kobayashi, President of Taiho Pharmaceutical Company Limited, part of the Otsuka Group in Japan, is also chair of Taiho Alberta, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Taiho Pharmaceutical Company. Taiho Alberta is the major partner in SynPhar Laboratories Inc, a joint venture company established with University of Alberta Pharmacy Professor, Ronald Micetich in 1987.

In addition to his association with SynPhar Laboratories,

Mr Kobayashi has approved funding of more than $3 million to several research projects at the University. These include more than $1.25 million to support physiologist Peter Pang's and Zoologist Larry Wang's research on Chinese herbal medicines; and close to $100,000 annually to chemist James Lown to study drugs used to treat cancer. Mr Kobayashi was also instrumental in creating the Taiho Foundation which promotes research exchanges between scientists and students in the health care fields from Japan and Alberta.

Mr Kobayashi's contributions in Japan have been recognized by the Tokushima Prefecture Governor's Award and the National Health and Welfare Minister's Award for Distinguished Pharmaceutical Services. In addition, the Alberta Department of Technology, Research and Telecommunications presented Mr Kobayashi with a special award for outstanding contributions to Alberta's science and technology.

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of the honorary degree to Yukio Kobayashi.

A Thousand Hooded Eyes, Poems by DG Jones, wood engravings by Lucie Lambert. Vancouver: Les Editions Lucie Lambert, 1990. No. 15 of 45 copies signed by poet and artist. The poems of one of Canada's finest lyrical writers are wedded to delicate, haunting animal woodcuts in this exquisite collaboration. For two decades Lambert has created some of this country's most imaginative artists' books. The striking leather binding was designed by Pierre Ouillard in Quebec; the inset sterling silver medallion of a frog was designed by Lambert and cast by Harry Sarber. This is an important addition to the Peel Library's book arts collection.

Graduates

The list of candidates for degrees, diplomas, and certificates appearing herein is subject to such corrections, with respect to additions, deletions, and changes, as may be necessary. The information as presented is current as of the program printing deadline. Graduates attending the ceremony are presented to the Chancellor alphabetically, beginning with those graduates receiving their degrees "with distinction" or "with first class honors." The winner of the most prestigious award in each Faculty, if attending, is presented first.

Honorary Degree Recipients

Former Deputy Prime Minister of Canada, the Honourable Donald Mazankowski celebrated 25 years of service as a Member of Parliament in June 1993. He was appointed Deputy Prime Minister in 1986 and added the portfolio of Finance Minister in 1991 (he was the first westerner in 60 years to hold these posts). During his 25 years in Parliament, he has held the positions of Agricultural Minister (1988); Treasury Board President (1987); President of the Queen's Privy Council and Government House Leader (1986); and Transport Minister (1979 and 1984).

A native of Viking, Alberta, Mr Mazankowski was in business in nearby Vegreville before entering federal politics. He was active in municipal affairs, serving on the Vegreville Separate School Board and as a member of the Vegreville Chamber of Commerce. He was also a member of the Knights of Columbus and the Rotary Club.

His strong support of higher education in Canada was acknowledged with the establishment of the Honourable Don Mazankowski Foundation. This is a nonpolitical foundation that provides scholarships to postsecondary students across Canada. Mr Mazankowski has received many tributes and awards, including an honorary degree from the Nova Scotia Institute of Technology.

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of the honorary degree to the Honourable Donald Mazankowski.

Francis Warriner's The Cruise of the U.S. Frigate Potomac round the world, during the years 1831-34. New York: Leavitt, Lod and Co, 1835. This modest-looking volume is a rare and important historical narrative. The author was a sailor on the three-year naval expedition sent to Sumatra by President Andrew Jackson, in order to curb the raiding of trade ships by pirates in the East Indies. It includes vivid, first-hand descriptions of Brazil, Chile, Peru, and whaling activity off the South American coast, as well as eye-opening visits to Hawaii, Tahiti, South Africa, and China. One of the earliest official American expeditions into the Pacific, this work is a significant addition to the Peel Library's extensive collections on nineteenth-century history.

Mr Walter Kaasa has been an amateur and professional theatre actor for more than 40 years and has had roles on a number of major television series as well. He spent 26 years with Alberta Culture and as assistant deputy minister was a major figure in the development of provincial cultural programs. Mr Kaasa currently conducts speech development seminars and workshops throughout Canada and is president of Kaasa Communications Ltd and the Academy of Speech.

An alumnus of the University, Mr Kaasa studied in London, England at the Royal Academy of Music and Art, the Central School of Speech and Drama, and the University of London. He taught school in rural Alberta and was an English and Drama instructor at Victoria Composite High School in Edmonton. Mr Kaasa was also on faculty at Grant MacEwan Community College teaching speech development.

He has received a variety of honors including the Canadian Centennial Medal in 1967 and the Banff Centre School of Fine Arts National Award (The Donald Cameron Prize) 1982. He was elected to the Edmonton Cultural Hall of Fame in 1990. In 1982, a theatre in the Northern Alberta Jubilee Auditorium was named The Walter H Kaasa Theatre.

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of the honorary degree to Walter Kaasa.

Pioneer Western Playbills, San Francisco: The Book Club of California, 1951. Notes by Frank C. Fenton, Oscar Lewis, and others. One of 850 copies. This charming and enlightening collection includes a set of twelve important Western theatre programmes in facsimile with historical notes. From the 1850s to the 1970s these playbills document productions in San Francisco, Sacramento, Los Angeles, and Virginia City, Nevada, for the benefit of scholars in theatre history. Included is the first -ever legitimate stage production in San Francisco, 1850, before a crowd of amazed Forty-niners.

Graduates

The list of candidates for degrees, diplomas, and certificates appearing herein is subject to such corrections, with respect to additions, deletions, and changes, as may be necessary. The information as presented is current as of the program printing deadline. Graduates attending the ceremony are presented to the Chancellor alphabetically, beginning with those graduates receiving their degrees "with distinction" or "with first class honors." The winner of the most prestigious award in each Faculty, if attending, is presented first.

This Convocation Program is printed on recycled paper containing at least 50% recycled fiber including 10% post-consumer waste paper.

If you can, please share this program with a companion. Then, if you do not take it home, please leave it (in good repair) on the table outside the doors as you exit the auditorium. This will help us ensure that someone else can use it on another day of Convocation, and subsequently conserve paper.

Thank you for your assistance.
